

HE COULDN'T LOVE YOU ANY MORE

Intro: Am D G Em Am D G

Chorus

He couldn't love you any more, He wouldn't love you any less
It doesn't matter if your good at being good or busy tryin' to impress
It doesn't matter if you're good at being bad, turnin' your life into a mess
He couldn't love you any more, He wouldn't love you any less

Verse 1

The Father's love it can't be bought, the price has all been paid
There's nothing left for you to try to do
A life of love and liberty is yours if you believe in Him
Who died upon the cross in place of you

Chorus

Verse 2

He takes us just the way we are, He knows that we can't change
Without His help we're staying just the same
But when we give our lives to Him by faith, He fills us with the power
To live a life that's free from guilt and shame

Chorus

Repeat last line of chorus twice

Words & Music by Alan Mills © 2000

Hill City Music

This song is copyright only in that it cannot be copied for commercial purposes. However, it would bless the writer greatly to see it copied and distributed freely for personal or corporate usage to anyone who is spiritually hungry or thirsty.