

If...

If Jesus came to your house
What would the neighbours say?
They'd wonder whose the car was.
Parked outside all day!

If Jesus came to your house
What would you talk about?
The weather? The job? The children?
Anything at all, no doubt.

If Jesus came to your house
What would you give Him to eat?
Would He like biscuits? Cake? Or bread?
Or perhaps a joint of meat?

If Jesus came to your house
He'd want to talk to you.
Would you sit down and listen?
Or have too much to do?

If Jesus came to your house
Would you turn Him away?
Are you sure you'd listen
To all He had to say?

If Jesus knocked at your heart
Would you let Him in?
He could let you start anew
And take away your sin.

Open your doors to Jesus.
Let Him be your King.
Give Him all that you possess.
Give Him everything.

Elaine Leese