

JUST A CARPENTER?

You're more than just a carpenter to me
You're more than just a man from history
When I need some direction and the path's not clear to see
You're not a mystery, You are the way for me

You're more than just a carpenter to me
You're more than just the babe they came to see
When lies have got my mind locked up and I can't find the key
You're not a mystery, You are the truth to me

Bridge

And when I need to put my trust in you
You're always there to help and take me through
When others let me down I know that you will still be there
Every day, just a prayer away

You're more than just a carpenter to me
You're more than just a man from Gallilee
When I am tempted to believe that death can set me free
You're not a mystery, You are the life in me

Repeat Bridge

You're more than just a carpenter to me
You're more than just a man hung on a tree
When I could never meet the debt required to set me free
You were a friend to me, You paid the price for me
When I was bound and shackled to a life of slavery
You broke the chains for me, You gave Your life for me

Words & Music by Alan Mills © 2000

Hill City Music

This song is copyright only in that it cannot be copied for commercial purposes. However, it would bless the writer greatly to see it copied and distributed freely for personal or corporate usage to anyone who is spiritually hungry or thirsty.